FAULKNER COUNTY CLERK

ORDINANCE 18-17
Sponsored by Personnel Committee

Be it enacted by the Quorum Court of the County of Faulkner, State of Arkansas. An Ordinance to be entitled: An Ordinance to amend and supplement Faulkner County Personnel Policy.

Section 1: Section XXXVIII. Sick Leave, paragraph D, shall be amended to reflect the following:

Employees shall be charged only for the actual number of hours of sick leave taken. The minimum charge for sick leave is one-fourth (1/4) of an hour.

Section 2: Section XVIII. Inclement Weather and XXXVI. Holiday Leave will be combined and renamed Courthouse Closures and shall be amended to reflect the following:

xxxxxxxxxxxxxx. Courthouse Closures

A. Inclement Weather Closing

1. Employees are expected to work regardless of the weather unless the County Judge declares the County offices officially closed. If the said offices are closed, the employees will be paid for the hours they normally work. If there is a delay in the opening of offices, employees shall likewise be paid if they work the remainder of the hours normally worked. Any employee unable to work due to the inclement weather when the offices are not closed or delayed in opening, will be charged vacation hours earned, if any, after compensatory time accrued, if any, for each day he or she does not report to work.
2. However, any employee may be required to work by their official, regardless of closing by the County Judge.
3. Employees who are not scheduled to work because of vacation, sick, or other leave will not receive inclement weather pay because the weather is not the reason for their absence.
4. Employees working in areas that are not closed for inclement weather shall accrue additional holiday leave for the inclement weather.

B. Holiday Leave

1. Faulkner County holidays shall be officially declared by the Faulkner County Judge. This declaration shall be issued annually, on or before December 10, and shall be for the forthcoming calendar year, if the employee is eligible, hours will be added to the holiday leave balance at the time the holiday occurs.

2. A paid holiday shall consist of one (1) normal workday, whether the employee works five (5) eight (8) hour days or four (4) ten (10) hour days or a twelve (12) hour day at the employee's normal hourly rate. Holidays not taken within one year from the holiday for which they are earned shall be forfeited.
3. Employees working in areas that are not closed on holidays shall receive time off for the declared holidays.
4. Supervisors are responsible for scheduling days off in lieu of holidays for their employees. Department heads and supervisors are responsible for informing their employees of the schedule and observance of all provisions.
5. When a holiday falls on an employee's regular scheduled off day, he or she will be given equivalent time off.
6. Employees on leave without pay are not eligible for holiday pay and leave time cannot be reserved for use during holiday pay periods only.
7. When a holiday falls on a Saturday, it shall be observed on the preceding Friday. When a holiday falls on a Sunday, it shall be observed the following Monday.
8. Holiday pay begins immediately upon employment.
9. When an employee terminates employment with the county, they are eligible to receive a payout of their annual leave up to 240 hours. However, upon termination, annual, as well as holiday leave, may not exceed 240 hours.

All other section numbers shall be renumbered accordingly to accommodate the changes.
