Chad,

I have received the report back from our appraiser, please see the attached. As expected, the vehicle is a total loss. The total loss settlement options are as follows:

ACV: $13,569
Insured Value: $12,000
High Salvage Bid: $6,826

Option 1, Retaining Salvage: You can decide to keep the vehicle. You would receive a settlement check for the ACV less the High Salvage Bid less your $500 deductible, for a total of $6,243.

Option 2, NOT Retaining Salvage: You can decide to NOT keep the vehicle, we would have our salvage company Copart come and pick the vehicle up for the salvage sale. According to our records, this vehicle is insured for $12,000, so that will be the max settlement amount if you select this option.

Please let me know which option you would like to select and if you have any questions.

Thanks,
