Press Release

April 25, 2017

State Lands Commissioner John Thurston presented a check to Faulkner County Elected Officials this morning for $422,620.92. This is just one stop for the Commissioner of State Lands Office, which has returned over $18 million to Arkansas Counties in 2016.

The turnback money received by Faulkner County is derived from property owners who pay delinquent estate taxes and any proceeds in excess of taxes due when Commissioner of State Lands Office sells property. The turnback money has been deposited in the County General Fund.

The Commissioner of State Lands office is having a tax delinquent land sale in Faulkner County on May 9, 2017 at 1 p.m. The sale will be take place at the Conway Expo Center at 2505 East Oak Street.
