Be it enacted by the Quorum Court of the County of Faulkner, State of Arkansas,
An Ordinance to be entitled: An Ordinance to set purchasing and travel procedures and guidelines for employees of Faulkner County.

- Section 1: Employee's or elected officials of Faulkner County will be reimbursed up to, but not to exceed, $30.00 (thirty dollars) per day for in state travel, $60.00 (sixty dollars) a day for out of state travel, for meals while traveling on work related business. To be eligible for reimbursement, the employee or elected official must be staying overnight, out of town and submit itemized receipts. No alcohol purchases will be reimbursed. Any purchases over the above mentioned amounts, or for alcohol or not on an itemized receipt will be the responsibility of the traveler and not eligible for reimbursement. No tips will be reimbursed.
- Section 2: The issuance of credit cards will be at the discretion of the elected official. Credit cards shall only be used for work related purchases and an itemized receipt, from the place of purchase, must accompany the credit card bill submitted for payment. Any credit card charge purchase not accompanied by an itemized receipt, will be responsibility of the purchaser. It shall be considered a violation of this Ordinance to knowingly purchase items for personal use, on a County issued credit card, with the intent of reimbursing the County.
- Section 3: Cell phone and pager issuance to county employees, whose job description requires they be away from the office regularly and must maintain contact to effectively or safely perform their duties, will be left to the discretion of the elected official. Cell phones, issued and paid by the County, are for business use only. Each elected official is responsible for monitoring the phones usage. An itemized cellular bill must accompany the purchase order for payment.
- Section 4: Faulkner County will not reimburse or pay college tuition for its employees or elected officials.
- Section 5: All airline travel should utilize coach accommodations. No first class travel will be authorized or reimbursed.

- Section 6: Room rates should be limited to single room or government rates, unless occupied by more than one employee. No in room movie charges, game charges or entertainment charges of any kind will be reimbursed by Faulkner County.
- Section 7: County funds cannot be used to purchase the meals, or provide refreshments, for inter-office meetings. Funds can be used to provide refreshments and meals for people other than Faulkner County employees/officials, at meetings held by Faulkner County elected officials, with a written agenda. Any purchases made that fall outside these parameters are the responsibility of the purchaser.
- Section 8: An emergency is hereby declared to exist as this Ordinance is necessary for the proper and timely conduct of county operations and this Ordinance shall be in force and take effect upon its passage and publication.

FAULKNER COUNTY QUORUM COURT

ORDINANCE 05-18

Be it enacted by the Quorum Court of the County of Faulkner, State of Arkansas.
An Ordinance to be entitled: An Ordinance that confers upon the County the authority to regulate unsanitary conditions.

WHEREAS, Arkansas Code Title 14, Chapter 14, Subchapter 8 was amended by Act 1984 of 2005 to add an additional section, 14-14-813, which confers upon counties the authority to regulate unsanitary conditions; and

WHEREAS, the Faulkner County Quorum Court desires to enact an Ordinance.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE QUORUM COURT OF FAULKNER COUNTY, ARKANSAS, THAT:

Section 1: Definitions

- 1) Agricultural property – Real property used primarily for the raising of agricultural or horticultural commodities, and orchards and woodlands, including, but not limited to raising, shearing, feeding, caring for, training, and management of animals; handling, drying, packing, grading, or storing on a farm any agricultural or horticultural commodity in its un-manufactured state; planting, cultivating, caring for, or cutting of trees, or otherwise preparing of trees for market.
- 2) Illegal storage and handling – The possession of drums, polluted soils other containment devises and/or the discharge, deposit, injection, dumping, spilling, leaking, or placing of any waste into or on any land or water so that such substance or any constituent thereof may enter the environment or be emitted into the air or discharged into any waters, including groundwater. All of the preceding done without proper permits procured by issued by the controlling agency, e.g. Environmental Protection Agency and/or the Arkansas Department of Environmental Quality.
- 3) Person – A person means any one or more of the following: an owner, occupant or agent; an assignee or collector rents; a contract for deed vendee; a mortgagor in possession; a receiver, executor or trustee; a lessee; a mortgage in possession; other person, firm or corporation exercising apparent control over a property.

- 4) Waste – A solid or liquid or combination thereof, which because of its quantity, concentration, or physical, chemical, or infectious characteristics may:
 - a) cause, or significantly contribute to an increase in mortality or an increase in serious irreversible, or incapacitating reversible, illness; or
 - b) pose a substantial present or potential hazard to human health or the environment when improperly treated, stored, transported, or disposed of, or otherwise managed.
- 5) Rubbish – Refuse or garbage items or materials discarded or rejected as useless or worthless.

Section 2: That it should be unlawful for any person(s), firm, corporation, partnership, association of persons, owners, agent, occupant, or anyone having supervision or control of any lot, tract, parcel of land or portion thereof, occupied or unoccupied, improved or unimproved, within the limits of Faulkner County, Arkansas, to maintain, use, place, deposit, leave, or permit to be, or remain on any public or private property, any items, conditions or actions, continuous violations of which are declared to be and constitute an unsanitary condition; provided, however, this enumeration shall not be deemed or construed to be conclusive, limiting, or restrictive.

- 1) Garbage, rubbish, and/or other unsightly, unsanitary articles, of whatever nature.
- 2) The storage of one or more junk or abandoned motor vehicles for a period of more than thirty (30) days unless reasonably out of public view. Junk or abandoned vehicles may not be stored for any length of time, unless all latches and locks are removed or made inoperative in a manner to ensure the safety of all persons.
- 3) Accumulation or storage of old tires in such a manner as to be a breeding area for mosquitoes or provide harborage for rats, mice, snakes or vermin of any kind.
- 4) Any building, or other structure, kept in such an unsanitary condition that it is a menace to the health and safety of people residing in the vicinity thereof, or presents a more than ordinary health hazard.
- 5) The open storage of ice boxes, refrigerators, and/or other appliances or furniture for a period of more than thirty (30) days unless reasonably out of public view. The same shall not be stored for any length of time unless all doors, latches and locks are removed or made inoperative in a manner to ensure the safety of all persons.
- 6) Illegal storage or handling of any solid, liquid, household, automotive, commercial, or demolition waste, whether dumped, spilled, burned or abandoned.

- 7) The pollution of any well, cistern, stream, lake, canal or body of water by sewage, dead animals, crematory, industrial wastes or other substances.

Section 3: This Ordinance does not apply to:

- 1) Agricultural property that is being farmed or otherwise used for agricultural purposes; or
- 2) A parcel of land ten (10) acres or larger.

Section 4: Notice of Violation. Whenever the Sheriff or other law enforcement agent, or their authorized agent or representative, determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that there has been a violation of any provisions of this Ordinance, they shall give notice of such alleged violation to the person responsible. Such notice shall:

- 1) Be put in writing.
- 2) Include a statement of the reasons why it is being issued, and a copy of this Ordinance shall be provided to the responsible person(s).
- 3) Allow a period of thirty (30) days for any performance of any act it requires.
- 4) Further state, that if such alleged violations are not voluntarily corrected within the stated time as set forth in the notice, the Sheriff or other law enforcement agent, or their duly authorized agent or representative, shall institute legal proceedings, charging the person(s), firm, corporation or agent with a violation of this Ordinance.
- 5) The Sheriff, or other law enforcement agent, or their duly authorized agent or representative, shall provide photographs and other documentation deemed appropriate to the Prosecuting Attorney in order to successfully prosecute any case in Court.

Section 5: Method of Notification. One or more of the following methods shall notify the person(s) responsible for the violation:

- 1) By delivery to the owner, agent or responsible party, personally.
- 2) By leaving the notice at the usual place, abode or business of the owner, agent or responsible party, with a person fourteen (14) years of age or older.
- 3) By depositing the notice in the United States Post Office, addressed to the owner, agent or responsible party, at his last known address by certified mail, restricted-delivery, postage prepaid thereon.
- 4) Posted upon the property and mailed to the last known address of the property owner by the Sheriff, or their duly authorized agent or representative or published in accordance with A.C.A. 14-14-104 if there is no last known address for the property owner.

Section 6: Grievance. Any person notified of a violation of this Ordinance who disagrees with said violation may file a sworn affidavit under penalty of perjury within fifteen (15) days from the citation. The affidavit should be mailed or hand-delivered to the Sheriff.

Section 7: Penalties. Any person(s), firm, corporation, partnership, association of persons, owner, occupant, agent or anyone having supervision or control, which shall violate a provision of this Ordinance, or fail to comply therewith, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Upon conviction of any such violation, such person(s) shall be punished by a fine of at least five hundred dollars ($500.00) and not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000.00). Any fines collected pursuant to this section, Section 7, of this Ordinance, shall be credited to costs incurred by Faulkner County under Section 9 of this Ordinance.

Section 8: Violations. A law enforcement officer, as required by law, shall prosecute by the issuance of criminal information, or by the issuance of a citation, violations of the provisions of this Ordinance. Prosecutions under this section are supplemental to any other remedies available under state law, including the Litter Control Act, A.C.A. 8-6-401 thru 416.

Section 9: Abatement by the County. In addition to other penalties described herein, upon failure of the person upon whom notice to abate an unsanitary condition was served pursuant to the provisions of this ordinance to abate the condition, the Sheriff, or other law enforcement agent, or their duly authorized agent or representative of the County, may proceed to abate such conditions and prepare a statement of costs incurred in the abatement thereof, and that person shall be responsible for all costs. The County may take any necessary corrective actions, including repairs to bring the property into compliance with the Ordinance, or remove or raze any structure ordered by the County to be removed or razed and charge for the cost of actions under (c)(1)(A) of Act 1984 of 2005 to the owner of the real property. The County shall have a lien against the property for any unpaid cost incurred under subdivision (c)(1) of Act 1984 of 2005 in addition to interest at the maximum legal rate. In all successful suits brought to enforce liens granted under this section, the County shall be reimbursed for its costs, including title search fees and a reasonable attorney's fee.

Section 10: Severance Clause. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this Ordinance is, for any reason, held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of this Ordinance.

Section 11: Effective Date. This Ordinance shall take effect on April 18, 2006 after its passage and approval.
